

Trinity NOTES

August 21, 2011

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

After fourteen years of faithful and dedicated service Ms. Beatrice Clark will be retiring as Administrative Assistant at Trinity, effective Friday, August 26th. Ms. Bea has been a fixture at Trinity and along with Stephen Waters helped to answer the phones, prepare the Sunday bulletins, publish the weekly newsletter along with many, many other tasks.

Maintaining the consistency of the office during a time of transition is especially difficult but Ms. Clark was an anchor. After the death of Stephen Waters, Ms. Clark took on many of his responsibilities as well. I am especially grateful for her presence during my own time of transition as Vicar.

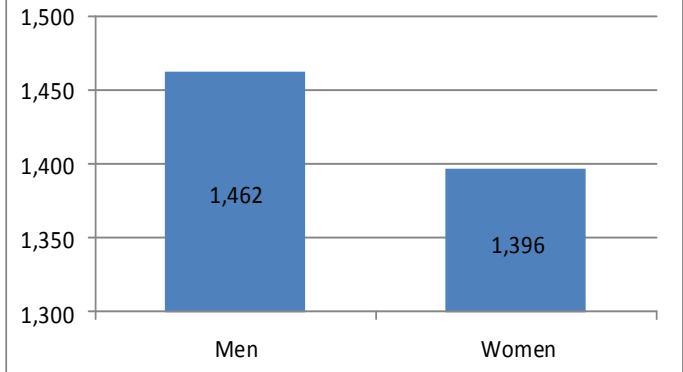

Given this change in the office staff as well as the additional needs that Trinity has in the bookkeeping area a new and significantly expanded position description has been developed. We have started to advertise and expect to have a new person in place by the end of September.

Please join me in thanking Ms. Clark for her service to Trinity. Ms. Clark will be present at our worship this coming Sunday, August 21th.

In Christ

Pastor Cass

Jubilee Ministry Grants

The Jubilee Ministry engages congregations in the important work of empowering people to change their lives, fighting against poverty and inequity, and lifting up strong communities. The Jubilee Ministry website (www.episcopalchurch.org/jubilee) describes this as “faith in action – loving God with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength by loving our neighbors as ourselves.”

Grants to Jubilee Ministries are awarded annually to congregations or agencies with connections to the Episcopal Church whose mission efforts affect the lives of those in need, addressing basic human needs and justice issues.

“No one knows the needs and challenges, or the hopes and dreams of a local community better than its residents,” said the Rev. Christopher A. Johnson, the Episcopal Church’s officer for Social and Economic Justice. “So, it’s a privilege for Jubilee Ministry to support the building of vital local relationships between Episcopal ministries and the communities they serve through these funding opportunities.”

For guidelines, additional information, and to apply for any of the grants, scan the QR code on the right or go to www.episcopalchurch.org/jubilee.

Applications for Jubilee Ministry grants for mission and ministry throughout the Episcopal Church are now being accepted in the following four categories.

Grants Funding Diocesan Initiatives: These grants of $1,000 will support Jubilee

Ministry development plans of the local bishop and the appointed diocesan Jubilee officer. Up to 50 grants are available (limit one grant per diocese). Applications are due October 1, 2011.

Health and Nutrition: These grants of $750 are for Jubilee Ministries that respond to the nutritional needs of people living in “food deserts,” which is defined as communities in which residents have no easy access to fresh produce and must rely on convenience stores or fast-food restaurants to provide their meals. Applications are due October 1, 2011.

Jubilee Ministry Asset-Based Community Development Workshop: These grants of $5,000 per workshop event are for dioceses hosting two-day Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) training workshops featuring ABCD Institute trainer Mike Green. Six ABCD workshops will be funded in 2012. Applications are due December 30, 2011.

2012 Summer Camps: These $1,000 grants are to promote summer camp programs that target either youth literacy or children of the incarcerated. Thirty grants will be awarded in March 2012. Applications are due December 30, 2011.
